

The Greater Feast of the Beast

Feast of Saint Sir Aleister Crowley

October 12th, 1875 — December 1st, 1947

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law.

Greetings and Health to all !

Join us as we celebrate the 79th Greater Feast of Τὸ Μέγα Θηπίον!

A night to raise a glass in good company and mark the occasion in proper style.

This will be an informal gathering at a fine pub here in Rotorua, so just come along, relax, and enjoy the evening. Whether you're a regular face or new to the group, all are welcome.

Feel free to bring along any friends who might also enjoy the occasion — the more the merrier, and good conversation is always improved by good company.

We look forward to seeing you there.

Love is the law, love under will.

Date: Saturday, 5th December Time: 7:00pm
